District Five Consultant Project Management Debriefing Meetings

D5 Consultant Project Management Website

Last Updated: 5/10/2017

OVERVIEW: A company requesting a debriefing meeting may only have ONE 30-minute debriefing meeting per project, no matter if prior to or after the final selection is complete. The debriefing meeting will be held with available TRC members only.

MEETINGS PRIOR TO FINAL SELECTION: If a company requests a debriefing meeting to be scheduled prior to the final selection being complete, another debriefing meeting after final selection will not be granted. The information which can be reviewed is ONLY what the company submitted. Comparison of other company submittals will not be permitted.

MEETINGS AFTER FINAL SELECTION: If a company requests a debriefing meeting to be scheduled after the final selection has been made, it is expected the company has reviewed all documents to be discussed prior to attending the debriefing meeting. Remember the meeting is only 30 minutes long. The information which can be discussed during the meeting includes all documents submitted for the project. District Five Procurement Services post the submitted documents after 72 hours of Final Selection. If you have any questions regarding the documents or problems accessing the documents, please contact the D5 Procurement Office directly.

REQUESTING A DEBRIEFING MEETING: For the desired Project, click on the REQUEST DEBRIEFING MEETING link under NOTES column.
In the memo portion of the self-generated e-mail, please provide several dates you are available and the window of time for each day. EXAMPLE: 3/20/2017 10:00-4:00; 3/21/2017 1:00-5:00; 3/23/2017 9:00-12:00
If you are unable to find the project you are looking for, please contact the project's Project Manager directly to schedule a debriefing meeting.
