

James W. MacLaughlin

2411 NW 27th Lane
Gainesville, FL 32605
(352) 240-6319
(352) 278-0826 cell
jim23413@gmail.com

EDUCATION

University of Rhode Island BS Civil Engineering 1966
University of Florida ME Civil Engineering 1978

EXPERIENCE

40 plus years of worldwide professional experience in construction management and administration. Served 20 years in the Navy Civil Engineer Corps with experience ranging from Vietnam combat construction with the Navy SEABEES to Project Manager for the construction of the $1.7 billion Kings Bay Submarine Base in St. Mary's, Georgia. 16 years of Florida DOT experience as Resident Engineer Jacksonville, Jacksonville Construction Engineer, and ultimately as Director of Operations in District 2, Lake City, Florida.

EMPLOYMENT

2003-Present Disputes Resolution Board Member. Serving District 1, District 2, District 4, and District 5 on DOT projects of various size and complexity.

1992-2003 Director of Operations. Responsible for all construction, maintenance, traffic operations, and material functions in District 2. In charge of $500 million construction effort and all associated programs. Responsibilities included construction of three major structures, 94 miles of interstate rehabilitation, two superfund activities, and oversight of DOT functions in 18 counties in Northeast Florida.

1989-1992 Jacksonville Construction Engineer. Responsible for all Jacksonville construction and the District Consulting CEI Engineer, District Final Estimate and District EEO/DBE programs. Supervised three Resident Engineers. Responsibilities included plan review, maintenance of traffic, coordination with local officials, media relations, personnel and budget management, construction inspection and quality control.

1986-1988 Resident Engineer Jacksonville. Responsible for the administration of all in house administered DOT construction projects in the Jacksonville office. Supervised engineers and technicians. Responsible for plan review, maintenance of traffic, construction inspection and quality control.

1986-1988 County Engineer Nassau County, FL. In charge of Nassau County Road, and Zoning Department. Responsible for design, construction, and maintenance of county roads, landfill operations, planning, and site reviews for subdivisions and developments.

1966-1986 Naval Civil Engineer Corps Officer. Worldwide professional experience in all aspects of construction management and facilities acquisition.