Question: 25498: As I am going over the plans for this project, I have a couple of questions regarding the Bluetooth and the Vehicle Detection System. We have Bid Items for the units, the equipment needed to install these items, But there are no quantities for the amount of cable or what kind of cable, to be used for each of these items. For example we have the RSU cable going across intersections, up poles, and over to the controllers. How would you like us to bid the conductors or communication cables.

Question: 25499: As I was doing my take off for the directional bore items, I noticed that we have included in the detail sheets where a 6" HDPE Conduit to be bored under the RAILROAD Tracks. On the same detail sheet it shows us using a 6" HDPE Casing to go under the roads. But on the plans the 6" casing for the intersections or other roadways do not included the 6" casing in the plan sheets. Do we need to included this cost or do we not included this cost for the intersections and Roadways?
