

FDOT AVIATION GRANT PROGRAM MANAGEMENT

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

This module provides an overview of the FDOT Aviation Office programs, functions, and the regulatory environment in which they operate.

1. Introduction
2. FDOT Work Program
3. Program Eligibility
4. Other FDOT Funding Sources

INTRODUCTION

FDOT PROGRAM MANAGEMENT RESPONSIBILITIES

- Promote further development and improvement of air routes, airport facilities, and landing fields and protect their approaches and stimulate the development of aviation commerce and air facilities
- Prepare and update aviation/airport work program to include proposed local sponsor projects
- Provide funding to airports based on statutory requirements
- Support development of airport land with objective of helping airport to be fiscally self-supporting

FDOT FIVE-YEAR WORK PROGRAM

- A rolling five-year plan to maximize FDOT's production & service
- Includes the following components:
 - Preliminary Tentative Work Program
 - Tentative Work Program
 - Adopted Work Program

Note: The Work Program will be covered in detail in a later section of this Module