

Appendix A 100% Poverty Level Certification

As a parent, caregiver, guardian, grandparent, foster parent or designee, you may qualify for a child safety seat for your eligible child(ren), dependent(s), or those for whom you provide care, including transportation on a regular basis.

If you or any of your household dependents self-certify that you are 100% poverty level, as defined by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services' Poverty Guidelines (provided on the next page), and are unable to afford to purchase a child safety seat for your child(ren), dependent(s) or child(ren) in your care at this time, you may receive assistance.

Only one car seat is allowed per child.

The recipient must provide one of the following: (Please indicate an "X" in the field provided below.)

- A. Tax return from last tax year (must show gross income that meets federal standards.)
The tax return may also be used for the person's dependent children (17 years or younger) if the following conditions are met:
- ◆ Parents/guardians meet the "at or below" federal poverty threshold.
 - ◆ All qualifying dependents/children exemptions are listed on the exemption section of the tax return.

OR

- B. Proof of enrollment in the Department of Children and Families', Access Florida Benefits document.
The Department of Children and Families, Access Florida Benefits document may also be used for the person's dependent children (17 years or younger) if the following conditions are met.
- ◆ A parent/guardian presents documents to prove the child lives at the same address.
 - ◆ The Access Florida Benefits document lists the address and dependent/children; therefore, may be used as proof that the child lives at the same address as the parent or guardian.

Annual Update of the HHS Poverty Guidelines

A Notice by the U.S. Health and Human Services Department (HHS) on 02/01/2021.

The poverty guidelines are the other version of the federal poverty measure. They are issued each year in the Federal Register by the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). The guidelines are a simplification of the poverty thresholds for use for administrative purposes—for instance, determining financial eligibility for certain federal programs.
