

The Florida Transportation Commission begins search for Secretary of the Florida Department of Transportation

Posted December 27, 2018

The Florida Transportation Commission is conducting a search for an outstanding forward-thinking individual to lead and manage Florida's Department of Transportation, an agency with over 6,000 employees and an annual budget of $10.9 billion. This individual must be personally committed to improving the mobility and economic strength of one of the nation's fastest growing states through effective planning strategies that support the utilization of innovative technology, finance and industry best practices.

The Secretary of Transportation must have a proven track record as an effective administrator who, by a combination of education and experience, possesses a broad knowledge of the administrative, financial and technical aspects of the development, operation and regulation of multimodal transportation systems and facilities.

The Florida Transportation Commission will conduct interviews and nominate three candidates for submission to the Governor. The Secretary will then be appointed by and will serve at the pleasure of the Governor of Florida.

Note that the "Government in the Sunshine" laws of Florida require that all documents related to the search process, including applications, will be available for public inspection. All interviews will be open to the public.

Please direct detailed resumes to: Jay Trumbull, Chairman, Florida Transportation Commission, 605 Suwannee Street, M.S. 9; Tallahassee, Florida 32399-0450, or submit by facsimile to 850-414-4234 or e-mail to teddi.pitts@dot.state.fl.us. Resumes will be accepted until 5:00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time, January 8, 2019. If submitting by facsimile or e-mail, applicant must confirm receipt by calling the Commission to obtain a receipt confirmation code. Inquiries may be made by contacting the Florida Transportation Commission at (850) 414-4105.
