

VEHICLES GREATER THAN 5-TONS ARE PROHIBITED FROM THE ROOSEVELT BRIDGE.

Drivers who disobey posted 5-ton weight limit signs could face a minimum of $163 fine and three points on their driver's license.

WHICH VEHICLES SHOULD NOT CROSS THE US-1 ROOSEVELT BRIDGE (STUART, FL?)*

It is the responsibility of the driver to know their vehicle weight and obey all road signs.

Suitable for Crossing

Assess gross vehicle weight (GVW) and maneuverability before crossing

Not Permitted to Cross

Ambulances and Fire Engines

are critical to public safety and permitted to cross.

Tractor Trailer Combos

are not permitted to cross.

Single Tractors or Empty Tractor Trailers

are not permitted to cross.

Utility Vehicles

are not permitted to cross

Single Panel Vans

must determine their GVW to be less than 10,000 lbs. before crossing.
(vehicle + cargo + equipment + passengers)

Step Up Vans

are not permitted to cross.

Box Trucks

are not permitted to cross.

Small and Large Transit Vehicles

are not permitted to cross.

Cars, Pick-up Trucks, and Sport Utility Vehicles (SUVs)

are permitted to cross.

Passenger Vehicles / Pick-up Trucks / SUVs with Single Axle trailer rated up to 3,500 lbs. or with double axle trailer rated up to 7,000 lbs.

are permitted to cross.

Passenger Vehicles / Pick-up Trucks / SUVs with Triple Axle trailers

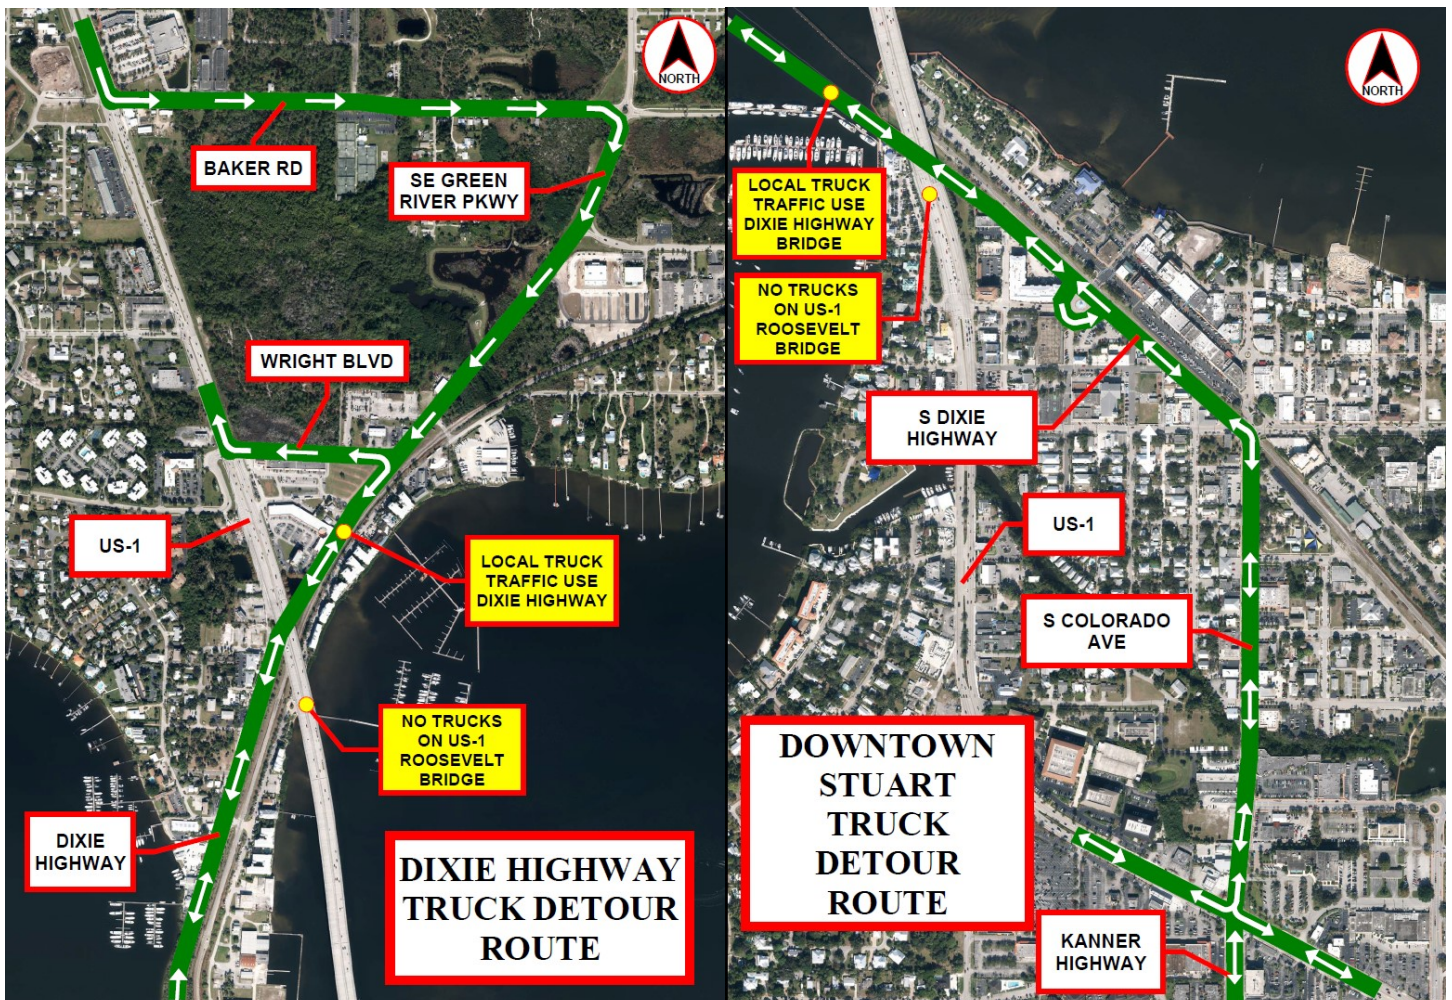

are not permitted to cross.

*The diagram below is based on average weights of vehicles from Florida Highway Patrol, commercial motor vehicle registrations, manufacturer websites, and the Department of Energy. This diagram is an example only.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR COOPERATION AND PATIENCE! We understand the importance of moving goods through the region and that this information is vital to the safety and efficiency of your operations. If you have specific question or suggestions please contact your local Freight Coordinator, Autumn Young at Autumn.Young@dot.state.fl.us or (954) 777-4279.

KNOW THE LAW.

VEHICLES GREATER THAN 5-TONS ARE PROHIBITED FROM THE ROOSEVELT BRIDGE.

Drivers who disobey posted 5-ton weight limit signs could face a minimum of $163 fine and three points on their driver's license.

