FDOT District Three Director of Operations

Suncoast Connector Task Force Vice Chair

You look at the population growth and how it's occurring. Growth is coming. So, the intent of the task force team is how do we address it. Let's be proactive in looking at how do we address to accommodate the growth as well as looking at our natural resources.

What's the best benefit for the communities? How do we connect the population centers? And at the same time, providing broadband and utility services to the rural areas, at the same time, protecting our environment. So, it's a collaborate effort with our team to establish what is that best alignment? What does that need to look like?
