Kevin J. Thibault, P.E.

Secretary

Florida Department of Transportation

This is really a defining moment for our state and to all those who accepted the call to serve as task force members. Again, we thank you for your willingness to serve in these critical roles. And these roles are essential to be able to achieve what is in front of us, a Florida that is prepared for growth in population, but still protects everything that makes the Sunshine State the best in the country.

The Governor and legislature has truly challenged us with researching these corridors and additional infrastructure to make sure that we truly revitalize the rural communities that make up these corridors, encourage job creation, provide regional connectivity.

We're providing numerous opportunities to have public input and engagement, not only today, but throughout the development of these corridor task force reports. And as we move forward with these projects.
