Changes implemented via Roadway Design Bulletins issued between December 2024 and November 2025 are incorporated into these manuals. These changes are effective as described in their respective Bulletin.

COMMENTARY

Roadway Design Bulletins are available on the Office of Design website at the following link:
http://www.fdot.gov/roadway/Bulletin/default.shtm

The summary of changes to the FDM can be found at the link below. Webinars providing an overview of the major changes to the FDM are under development and will be available by December 31, 2025.
https://www.fdot.gov/roadway/fdm

The summary of changes to the Drainage Manual can be found at the following link:
https://www.fdot.gov/roadway/drainage/criteria-and-guidance

The summary of changes to the Flexible Pavement Design Manual and the Rigid Pavement Design Manual can be found at the following link:
http://fdot.gov/roadway/PM/publications.shtm

There were no revisions to the 2019 Pavement Type Selection Manual; therefore, this version of the publication will remain effective.
