

What are Safety Performance Functions?

- Mathematical Regression Models for Roadway Segments and Intersections
- Developed from data for a number of similar sites
- Developed for specific site types and “base conditions”
- Function of only a few variables, primarily Annual Average Daily Traffic
- Used to calculate the expected crash frequency (crashes/year) for a set of base geometric and traffic control conditions