Userid:

Problem statement: Section 283 is modified to remove restrictions where they do not add value to the final product.

Information source: Willie Henderson, State Materials Office (352) 955-6316

Background data: The modifications reduce test requirements for areas that are not subjected to traffic loads and provide continuity with other specifications by removing lots from the specifications.

Recommended Usage Note: All contracts let after July 2007

Estimated fiscal impact, if implemented: None anticipated.

Implementation of these changes, if and when approved, will begin with the July 2007 letting.
