Comment: (4-12-11) Page 8, 901-5 Reclaimed Portland Cement Concrete, paragraph 3, sentence 2: Do not use the word “They”. The sentence should begin with “Sources...” or “Sources of reclaimed Portland cement concrete... ”.
Same section, paragraph 4, last sentence: “with the Rules 62-701, FAC...” should read “with Rule 62-701, FAC...”.

Comments: (4-18-11) My question is the proposed wording on wood and organic substances. The wording “except wood and other organic substances” seems to negate the value in the table. I believe you mentioned there was an asterisk and note left out of the review draft.

Response: Corrections made. Spec’s Office.

Comments: (5-17-11) Comments from Dan Haldi of District 5 Materials: <<>>901-1.2, bottom of section, new paragraph, below *, the wording “In addition ... “, should be struck-through; implies added conditions to just the asterisk information; whereas I think the section should start with just “ The weights of deleterious”; which would then imply added limitations apply across the board to all reclaimed Portland cement concrete aggregates

Response: Agreed. Change made.
