

Pavement Deficiencies (Section 330) and Pavement Distress (Section 338)

RAVELING - The progressive separation of aggregate particles in a pavement from the surface downward or from the edges inward.

BLEEDING - The upward movement of liquid asphalt resulting in the formation of a film of asphalt on the surface.

SLIPPAGE- The movement between layers when none should exist. Picture illustrates classical U pattern.

POT HOLES

DELAMINATION

